

CUI - a powerful network for more success.

This expertise system places tailored, service-oriented strategies at the disposal of independent bodyshops. With anything from tips on business management to information on everyday bodyshop tasks, paint manufacturer Spies Hecker has been supporting its CUI partner businesses with valuable expert knowledge in the fields of marketing, management and technology since the year 2000.

Almost 400 bodyshops in different European countries have already joined the CUI network and are benefiting from the straightforward solutions in line with market conditions.
