

Boost your business as our new CUI partner.

Why do you benefit from partnership with CUI?

Because we provide solutions that make your work easier. As a CUI partner business, you benefit from an international network and can thus respond in good time to new market trends. You also make use of professional support from experienced specialists.

What you need to have in order to qualify for membership:

- A skilled refinisher on your payroll
- A spray booth plus drying booth or a combination booth
- Modern welding equipment
- A mixing system from Spies Hecker
- Neat and tidy appearance
- Continuous further training (provided by Spies Hecker)

For more information about Colors Unlimited International (CUI) and how to apply for a CUI membership, please contact CUI headquarters in your country.
