

Digital Colour Tools.

We are continuously developing our range of products and services - ensuring that they are closely aligned with the needs of our customers. Our measuring devices and the web-based Phoenix colour software mean that we are able to offer customers tailor-made solutions for practical digital colour management - for even greater efficiency in the workshop.

Cloud-based software Phoenix

Our cloud based Phoenix colour management software means that you always have the latest formulas.

> read more

ColorDialog Phoenix.

The ColorDialog Phoenix spectrophotometer is wireless so gives flexibility around the bodyshop.

> read more

ColorDialog Compact

The ColorDialog Compact features best-in-class colour measuring accuracy and connects via USB to any PC.

> read more

Day light lamp ColorSpot

It can be used for colour comparison with colour swatches and sample panels to damage assessment and much more.

> read more